Reference: Your letter No./228/2019 Date.18.7.2019

Respected Sir,

In accordance with the aforementioned correspondence, and in light of your request, granting a 10% additional admission quota to the specified courses for the academic session 2019-20 will not impose adverse effects on other colleges. This provision is being extended by the Honourable Vice-Chancellor.

The augmented admission capacity will be applicable solely for the academic session 2019-20. As a consequence of this augmentation, each college will acquire supplementary resources such as new additional batches, additional posts, and additional grants. It is imperative to highlight that these allocations will not be endorsed, and the government will not assume any financial obligations thereof. Furthermore, admissions to the university should not surpass the approved excess capacity.
